

Eileen Scherberger, CPA, CFP®
President
The Zeist Company, LLC

Eileen serves as the President of a Single-Family Office located in Atlanta, Georgia which is the provider of comprehensive and integrated financial, educational, and philanthropic support services to the descendants of Dr. George and Jean Brumley. Eileen joined Zeist in August 2000 and her responsibilities include serving as chief relationship manager and family “quarterback”, overseeing the strategic direction of the family office, and oversight of the financial and investment activities of the family and foundation. She is responsible for establishing the policies and procedures and internal controls for the family office and for leading her team to ensure the timeliness, accuracy, and security of the family and foundation’s financial information including financial planning and reporting, investment administration, trust administration, tax compliance, estate planning and risk management.

Eileen attended Kennesaw State University and simultaneously earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. She obtained her CPA license in 1997 and worked as a tax & audit manager in public accounting before joining Zeist. She obtained the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) designation in 2014 and is an active member of the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants. She currently serves as the President of the Atlanta Estate Planning Council and Secretary of the Georgia Financial Planning Association. Eileen is also active in the nonprofit world, serving on the advisory boards of Agape, Besharat Arts Foundation and Whitefoord.

Eileen’s interests include art, cinema, and natural history. She and her husband Joe live in Vinings and are both active members of the YMCA and enjoy traveling, hiking, volunteering, and spending quality time with their family and friends.
